

Team Book Page Example

Each page should be set up like the example above. The player certification form should be on the left side with the birth certificate on the right side. A photo should be attached to the player certification form. You can ask parents to bring you photos or take your own photos during practice.